There has been discontent ever since be death of "Little Tim" Sullivan, forr leader, when Fitzgerald was in-ted into the leadership. The latter was not overpopular, and it is claimed that since taking the leadership he has not been influential in securing places the deserving ones. Under his command the old headquarters at No. 200 wery, once a bee hive of political acrity, became deserted and "lights out"

"Larry" Mulligan, holding council at the St. Denis, said: "We are in this fight for our friends. Fitzgerald has said that the Sullivans have been supplanted by a new order of things. The Sullivans have done too much for the east side to be turned down by Fitzgerald or any other man or set of men. The fight is on now, and it will end with the election of 'Paddy' Sullivan."

But Senator Fitzgerald is not going to relinquish the leadership without giving battle in return, and his friends declare that he will win. He has built up a strong organisation of men in favor of his leadership as against old conditions, and these deny that his captains have broken away from him. The Fitzgerald forces, moreover, are in control, have broken away from him. The Fitzgerald forces, moreover, are in control, have possession of the election machinery, and there will be no lack of funds to conduct a winning fight.

The date of the primaries has not been set yet. Because of a proposed constitutional provision to be voted on the Election Board may declare a date is June for the primaries.
